

Art studio tours - February 23rd,
 starting at 10:00 am, in Piscu Village

With 'Art in Bucharest', you can discover your creativity by joining us to the pottery workshop at Piscu School. We will meet two young artists who support the school and value the local heritage and pottery craft. Families with children are welcome too.

When? Saturday, 23rd of February, 10:00-13:30

What will we do?

We will participate in a pottery workshop, we'll try the potter's wheel ourselves, we'll paint and draw on ceramic objects. We'll find out how come in Piscu there is such an old tradition in Romanian pottery. We'll also visit the nearby Țigănești Monastery (XVII century) and check out its well-kept weaver's studio.

Price: 60 RON per person and 50 RON per child. Part of the fee will be directed to support the local school in Piscu Village.

Include: guiding, pottery workshop, tea & cakes, visit at Țigănești Monastery & weaver studio.

Meet: in Piscu Village, 30 km away from Bucharest. When you exit Bucharest towards Ploiesti on DN1, reach Ciolpani at km30, turn left and find Piscu in 4km.

Subscribe: until 20th of February (payment in advance), by contacting Mircea, your guide, at 0746 11 00 33, or by email at mircea@artinbucharest.com

See you soon!
